

A large rectangular area containing eight empty musical staves, each with a dashed midline, intended for practicing the intervals shown in the examples on the left.